Third Edition

March 2012

Introduction

Welcome to the third edition of 29ER, the newsletter dedicated to members and fans of the Home and Aways Prediction game.

February has been a turbulent month with a number of surprise results and the intervention of the great British weather. There are no clear favourites in the race to become the LEAGUE GAME 2012 champion; everything is still to play for.

Headline News – All Change at the Top

The month of February has seen a number of changes at the top of the Home and Aways Leader Board. The member who has had the most successful month is Mick Stewart with two home sweeps giving him a clear 5 point lead, well done.

JOKE

"A Scouser, a Manc and a Cockney in a lap dancing club watching an attractive young lady gyrate in front of them. The cockney winks at her and she comes over, he sticks twenty quid in the young lady's bra. Not to be out done the Manc winks, she comes over; he proffers thirty pounds for the young lady which he tucks in her g-string. The Scouser then motions her over and asks her to bend over, then he pulls out his bank card swipes it between the cheeks of her backside and takes fifty quid cash back."

NEW 29ER Monthly Quiz

This month's quiz questions are as follows:

Question 1  Which football club has spent the most number of years in the top flight?

Question 2:  The first ever Scotland team was made up entirely of players from which Football Club?

Question 3:  English FA and FIFA officially recognise which club as the oldest playing Association Football?

Last Month's Answers: Q1 – 4 Q2 – Berwick Rangers – Q3 – Brooking (scored the winning goal in the 1980 FA Cup)

Celebrating St David's and St Patricks Day!

It is that time of year when we celebrate both St David's and St Patricks Day.

If you just so happen to be in London on the 16th of March (a day early), come and join members of the Home and Aways for a pint or two at O'Neil's (40 Great Queen Street, London, WC2B 5AA) or if you're in Glasgow come along to The Stirling Castle (90 Old Dumbarton Road), the drinks are on Martin and 'Duck loving' Colin Kennedy - Glasgows equivalent to the Chuckle Brothers.

Burt Watch!

When Burt said 'watch this space', 'it's a marathon not a sprint' he was not kidding. In the last month Burt has climbed an incredible 6 places from 44 to 38!

What could you do with £572?

If Winston Churchill were alive today..... "I would spend all my winnings on Clemmie! I would be competitive throughout the competition... I would fight on the beaches, fight on the landing grounds, fight in the fields and in the streets, fight in the hills; I shall never surrender my Home and Away Lead!" (take note Mick).

Quick Fire Members Spotlight – Rob Cooper and Peter Armstrong

This month's Members Spotlight consists of Rob Cooper and Edgar Craven – thank you both for your contributions (believe it or not; Rob is a Manchester Utd fan and actually comes from Manchester – honest)!

Joke	A piece of rope walks into a bar, and the bartender says, "We don't serve your kind." The rope goes outside, ties himself in a knot and frays one end of himself. He walks back into the bar and the bartender says, "Weren't you just in here?" The rope replies, "No, I'm a frayed knot."
