Introduction

Welcome to the 8th edition of 29ER, the newsletter dedicated to members and fans of the Home and Aways Prediction game.

Headline News – Pat Delivers!

Pat has delivered the opening blows during the month of August in League Game 2012 (2) and recorded two sets of 1st class results. He has also written his name in Home and Aways history by becoming the first ever winner of the 'Accumulator' game – well done!

Alan S also had a storming month and was the second ever accumulator winner – already Pat (£24) and Alan (£24.50) can look forward to a visit from a Home and Aways committee member to receive at tidy sum just in time for Crimbo!

Record Prize Funds - For both League Game 2012 (2) and Accumulator

With a record number of participants (55); the prize money for the League Game 2012 (2) is a whopping £1100 (£715 first prize). With 49 entrants in the accumulator (week one there was 48); each week the 'unique' winner of this competition is guaranteed at least £24.50 – good luck to you all!

Burt Watch!

Unfortunately Burt was too upset to comment about his start to the new Home and Aways season. Hopefully we will hear from him in September.

Pubs and Clubs Update

An introductory Pubs and Clubs game started at the same time as the normal league game. This competition will run until the end of October. After two weeks Kelvin H from Borehamwood is leading (well done Kelvin). If you would like to know more; speak to a Home and Away committee member.

What would you do with £715 – Tommy Cooper

If Tommy Cooper was alive today....."It would be magical if I won £715 and the Home and Aways. Just like that I would buy a spoon or a jar, no a jar then a spoon and treat myself to a visit to the dentist (that's the money gone!). The last time I went there, they said my teeth were OK but they had to remove my gums ha ha ha! I would also treat the wife; I've got the best wife in England. The other one's in Africa! Ha ha ha" – still making us laugh after all these years.

Quick Fire Members Spotlight – Catriona Kennedy and David Furnish

This month's Members Spotlight consists of Glasgow based 'Krankies Crazy' Catriona Kennedy and David Furnish (at least Elton is out of the spotlight for once); thank you both for your contributions.
