Accumulator News – Clarification Week 18

The Home and Away Committee would like to clarify that in the event of there not being a single winner during the final week of each accumulator; the fund will be shared by the highest scores who have entered.

St. Andrews Day Celebrations

The Home and Aways Committee would like to wish all our dear friends north of the border a very happy St. Andrews Day.

Burt Watch!

Burt has had his best month ever during October. Not only has he risen to 17th in the overall standings (his highest ever) but Burt even managed to win the accumulator (£24.50). To celebrate Burt decided to buy all his pals a drink in his local 'The Wellington, Borehamwood'. In total it came to £3.30 and included a drink for himself! Well done Burt.

Season 2012 Game Update

The second 'Season 2012 Game' started in October and will last until the end of December. Currently Peter is leading and is closely followed by Julian and Mick.

Request your own Bespoke Game

Home and Aways can now provide extra bespoke games for players. If you want to set up your own private game for you and few friends then please email homeandaways@homeandaways.co.uk for further details.

Quick Fire Members Spotlight – Steven Winter and Alistair Rigg

This month's Members Spotlight consists of 'Aussie' Steven Winter and Alistair Rigg who is the first Home and Away member to support a non league team (conference outfit Luton Town).

The Home and Aways committee would like to thank you all for your continued support and wish all participants the very best of luck!
