29th Edition

March 2015

Introduction

Welcome to the 29th edition of 29ER, the newsletter dedicated to members and fans of the Home and Aways Prediction game.

Headline News – Halfway Point

We are now at the halfway stage (week 10) of League Game 2015 (1) and have the 'Flying Scotsman' David B joint leading with David W and Colin A - all have 127 points. There is still all to play for and things can change very quickly in just a few weeks (watch out everyone I have now moved up to position 39 and am closing the gap!).

More 'Mug' shots needed!

This month, the mug has continued its journey across the globe from Arsenal to Ghana. It's the first time we've seen the mug in a ground (if you like a challenge beat that!). Huge thanks to Mark A for sending a mugshot from the Accra Sports Stadium, Ghana –WOW! That's fantastic Mark, well done. You can check out the ones submitted on the website, keep them coming, get your 'mugs' out and about and see what shots you can get.

Accumulator Update

Congratulations to the latest Accumulator winners, Team L(ala) won £87 in week 8, Les A picked up the £87 in week 9. Week 10 was won by me (it's not a fix - honest), I don't like to talk about it but I did ask my local paper the 'Westminster and Chelsea News' if they would do an article on me but not heard back yet! Well done to all!
