30th Edition

April 2015

Introduction

Welcome to the 30th edition of 29ER, the newsletter dedicated to members and fans of the Home and Aways Prediction game.

Headline News – New 29ers and Record Accumulator Prize

What a weekend we had in week 11, two players Steve P & Mathew G hit a full maximum points which placed them in the 29er Hall of Fame, well done both. The 'Flying Scotsman' David B was not flying anymore as he seemed to be losing altitude by plummeting to 10th spot after week 16 – I'm sure David will be back.

We also have a record breaking accumulator jackpot of £609 to play for – good luck to everyone!

More 'Mug' shots needed!

This month, the mug has continued its journey across the globe to the Colosseum in Rome. What a fantastic photo, must be the best one yet. Thank you to Mark A for sending it in, well done. The other photo's are actually from a Home and Aways cake. You can check out all the photos on the website - keep them coming!

Seven goals flew in at the New Den, six of them going to the visiting Watford side, and here's Martin Taylor rising to grab the last in stoppage time. But can you accomplish what Millwall's defenders so rarely managed and work out roughly where the ball might be (sorry to all you Millwall Fan's).

Answer to the March spot the ball was C7
