Who am I?

I am the club's all-time leading goal scorer but left over uncertainty about the manager's future. I won the Champions League as part of a historic treble, a year later.

I helped my club win their first European Cup in my final game having already announced a lucrative move abroad that shocked the fans.

I led my club to their first ever league title and became their record goal scorer, but left in disgrace after serving a 15-month drug ban.
