Who Am I?

1. I left in tears after 25 years which included three Champions League and five league titles and my club were criticised for failing to give me a proper send-off.
2. I won three European Cups and eight league titles but I left for a then world record transfer fee after my team-mates voted for me to lose the captaincy.
3. I spent 12 and a half years at my club, winning seven league titles, but left suddenly after criticising my team-mates on the club's in-house television channel.
